NOTE: This is a realtime game. As the game loads faster than realtime, the game can take up to 5 seconds to play! You are the last Chniro, and your mission is to stop the deadly Corporation from destroying all life on Earth. Your only weapon is a powerful plasma cannon. Space is a scary place. No, it's worse than that - the universe is a scary place. Think Metroid has nothing to do with shmups? Think again. It's not about moving in that direction to save the world, it's about moving that way to save yourself. In this concept of a Metroid-like platformer you will collect power-ups and find all the best enemies. Controls: Shoot Swap Plasma Cannon Jump Power-up Power-up is a time-based increase in damage, speed, jump height or any other ability. Power-ups are very random but if they are not collected in time a boss will appear. Bosses are very difficult to defeat without Power-ups, you must play as they are not supposed to be touched. The game will automatically play at the highest resolution available on the desktop computer. To change the resolution please press F11 and the new resolution will be selected. GAMEPLAY: The game will randomly generate the difficulty level by choosing from a pool of enemies and power-ups, and if it is your first run of the game it will also choose a set of Special Items which will always keep you alive and give you a special bonus when used. If you die in the game you can always try again without any load penalty. The game's controls consist of an on-screen action button, a firing-down button, a jump button, a jump up button and an inventory button which is used to access a character, power-ups and special items. A character is selected using the first action button and the firing-down button is used to press the firing action (shoot), while the jump button is used to jump. The jump up button will jump in any direction the player is facing. The inventory button will rotate the camera to an angle of 90 degrees. Pressing the inventory button without a selected character will take a screenshot of the current screen. Controls - On

XMusicVisualizer is a visualizer for the award winning, The Best Video Game Music of All Time Minneapolis Star Tribune Best of 2007 The Best Classic Game Music of All Time Guitar Hero: World Tour by RedOctane Rydel is a musician from the side projects of the game. He is not a player from the game itself, nor is his music very good, however he had a vision and a plan to make this thing and if you choose to play the game, you will know what we were going for. If you're a fan of the game, you might want to get your games, even if you don't have them, and play them. Why? Because if you don't play the game, the music will only live in your head and none of the other music will exist. This is a single player flash visualizer with optional piano, bass, synth, drums, and full chord and rhodes arrangement. While the background music is fully featured, the game is designed to be played with ambient music instead. If you can't hear the music, you'll find that it doesn't make a lot of sense to play it. We tried to make the music sound great no matter what you were doing in the game or nothing at all. If you really like it, keep our channel on youtube. We have more demos waiting to be added to the collection if you want to see more. XMusicVisualizer is a visualizer for the award winning,Best Video Game Music of All TimeBest Classic Game Music of All TimeGuitar Hero: World Tour by RedOctane If you don't like the music, you can play the game without the music. There is no sound inside the game, but you can play the game in the dark if you don't want to listen to it. If you like the game, you can keep playing the game without the background music, but you might want to put a radio or headphones on to play this music while you play. The game is compatible with MIDI Keys. Chords and music are pre loaded for the game. If you want to change your song, you can use a MIDI keyboard to create new music or use the MIDI buttons in the game. While you can make your own music, we can't help you do that, but we can make you a video of your music and d41b202975
