Our Book Recommendations. The major publishers of children's literature have expanded their children's book catalog in recent years to both include more nonfiction titles and to include more cross-over nonfiction works into their catalogs. In August of 2017, Scholastic, a B&N company, acquired BookLife Publishing, a non-fiction publisher that primarily publishes books for Early Readers. BookLife will remain as a part of Scholastic and will continue to do all business under Scholastic, including book publishing, bookselling, warehouse stores, and educational services.
